HOW THE ALMIGHY SEES US

The Truth Shall Make Us Free

A PRAYER FOR A BETTER WORLD

In the New Year's issue of "The United States News" David Lawrence published a prayer for a better world of which we print the following excerpts:

" . . It is natural to pray for victory. But victory over whom and what? . . . Surely prayer for strength just to destroy other human beings makes little sense by itself. The fathers and mothers of the Japanese youth must in their own way be praying. Human love knows no boundaries of race or geography. The fathers and mothers of the German and Russian youth . . . must be praying, too. The fathers and mothers of the emaciated, dispirited and broken youth of France, of Belgium, of Holland and Norway, of Greece and Yugoslavia, and yes, of Italy and Austria must be sending up their fervent prayer of hope and their petition for victory, too.

"We pray to Almighty God for help. Maybe the first help we can expect will come when we begin to help ourselves—to help subdue the maelstrom of human currents and cross currents that drive millions of us into conflict every day, not necessarily in the wars of organized murder but in the gruelling confluence of everyday life . . . .

"Maybe help will come when we begin to purge ourselves of the sins of aggression that have made us selfishly blind and indifferent to the pleas of others . . . Maybe we have planted ourselves too firmly on top of our possessions and bade ourselves never to let others touch what we grudgingly refuse to share with them . . .

"Prayer is not just to receive help to aid us to become victorious over others. Prayer is needed to make us victorious first over ourselves . . .

"At birth and death we admit the miracle of God. Shall we not concede the miracle of life in the decades intervening between those two extremes of time?

"Let us pray for a strengthening of our sense of reason.

"We may pray then for help from Almighty God to give us the means of communication so that across the no-man's land of human distress, understanding hearts will speak to understanding hearts, so that the unselfish spirit of human brotherhood which has been taught us through the centuries as the only ideal which makes any sense may produce a moral force greater than battleships and planes, tanks and guns . . .

"Almighty God give us understanding so that we may begin to live in accordance with Thy wishes—so that we may begin to mobilize our nation and all other nations in the greatest spiritual crusade of all times.

"We know that in war itself there can be no victory. Only in the peace that comes from forgiveness and understanding is there victory. Almighty God, grant us the strength to enlist in Thy cause—the cause of honesty, of unselfishness, of purity and of love,—on earth as it is in Heaven."

CHURCHILL'S JOY vs. NOBLE'S REMARKS

Reason for Elation

CHICAGO,—The fact that Churchill and Beaverbrook were elated over the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, because this blow brought the United States into the war is no proof that this country is fighting for the British empire. Naturally they were pleased and we would have had legitimate reason to call them liars and resent their lack of appreciation if they had tried to conceal their feeling.—Westbrook Pegler.

* * * *

And while the authorities are rounding up the Japanese and removing them from the defense areas in the interest of national safety, they might give some attention to the un-American crackpot Robert Noble, who yesterday at Los Angeles told a state assembly investigating committee that in their treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor "the Japanese did the proper thing under the exigencies of the time . . ." No person like that should be permitted to be at large to spread his poisonous propaganda, no matter what his nationality may be. Noble claims to be an American. So was Benedict Arnold.

NO TIRES for Newspapermen

(Friday night, 9:45, KGB, Feb. 27)

There are many people who judge a person's success in life by the amount of money accumulated, or the amount of properties in his name, or the command he has over other people and their goods, as, for example, dictators have in time of war. While one needs a certain measure of earthly goods, influence and co-operation from other people, the measure of one's success in life lies in the character he built into his own soul, the intellignece he unfolded in discerning truth from falsehood, the courage and executive ability he produced in practicing the principles he expects others to practice. The accumulation of material goods, then, becomes incidental to the main purpose of life itself, namely to produce a human being which is true to the high standard the Creator had in mind when He fashioned MAN in His own image and likeness. For what does it profit a man if he won the whole world but in the process lost his own divine soul?!

These are matters of common knowledge but not of common practice; as a result we have strife and finally even war.

I have always been attracted by the simplicity of the teachings of Christ. To win the good things of the world all we have to do is strive after the Kingdom of God first, learn to love the truth above all other considerations, abide by the RULE of God instead of the rule of mortal minds who, of necessity, are bound to fail when they disobey the Will of God. I decided as a little boy to follow this simple rule in order to acquire all the things which naturally result from adherence to principle and the search for the truth in all matters of daily life. No engineer or mathematician can be successful if he does not figure his calculations on the basis of truth. Neither can man succeed in life on any other basis; to know the truth in what to eat, drink, think, say and do, that is the only way to mastery over life, here on earth and any other place.

The other things that intrigued my fancy was the order of the great Teacher of Nazareth when He instructed His disciples to go into the world and spread the good tidings that all men can be free and safe by simply adhering in practice to the RULE of God. God's rule is perfect and takes care of every exigency. Jesus ordered His pupils not to worry about tomorrow, nor about what they were going to eat and drink, about clothes to wear on their backs or the means of travel; He simply impressed them to devote their whole zeal to practicing what they were preaching and these other things would naturally be taken care of by those who profit from their example and co-operation. The beneficiaries of their teachings certainly would not let them starve or go naked.

When I arrived in the U. S. in 1912 I decided to put into practice these teachings of the Master, since I came to this new country for the purpose of exercising the very principles by which this nation is to become the savior nation of the world. We are not a free people as yet as long as we dare not follow the Master in all things, but in the measure that we do, to that extent do we lead the world into better paths of life. Upon my arrival I divested myself of everything except the clothes on my back. I refused to make use of various letters of introduction and certificates I had attesting to my standing as a civil engineer. I have to get acquainted with the facts as they are and to find the truth about everything in these U. S., I had to start from scratch. I have followed this policy up to this day and in this fashion have acquired a true picture of the character of the people and of the conditions in these U. S.

I'll give you an example of what happened only yesterday. You know when it was in the wind that tires would be rationed I could have easily found the means to buy me an extra set of tires for my car. But that would be cheating, not on the war effort, but on the rule of not taking thought for tomorrow as long as I am operating in the service of the Master. By following the rule, now I had to go through the same procedure as every other common citizen and resident of San Diego and apply for a permit to have one of my tires retreaded. I went to the tire rationing board in the Civic Center Building and was shown the regulations governing the rationing of tires. And there is no provision made for furnishing tires or retreads to an editor of a small weekly paper. The only people who can get tires are the big daily papers who use trucks for wholesale deliveries of newspapers. That was quite a surprise. The daily papers are considered a public necessity while the county editor who must cover a large territory to collect news, collect subscriptions is entirely left out in the cold. The regulations will furnish him tires only for wholesale delivery of his papers to the post office and to the news-stands.

Since the large papers have plenty of employees who could cover a wide territory in small sections each, the weekly editor, like myself, who is a real independent editor, and does most of the work himself, is up against it. This shows that once more under cover of defense exigency the small man is to be eliminated from the American picture. Just imagine what kind of public life we would get when small papers, like my own, can no longer warn you about crooked politics and politicians; about high pressure tactics and false news; about propaganda and commercialized editorial policies. Would the dailies and their backers not be delighted to kill off their competitors who have always been a thorn in their side, both commercially and editorially, as well as politically!!? So that is the situation we are facing now. And I am taking steps to arouse the small editors throughout the nation to the menace that is about to eliminate a free and independent press entirely throughout the lenght and breadth of this country. There are many devious ways of destroying a free press and tire rationing is one of them with its present rules.

END THE WAR QUICKLY !

" . . . If the war can be brought to a successful conclusion in a year or two, we should be able to regain most of our freedom. But if it drags five or ten years, until the nation's credit and resources are exhausted, wartime controls may never be released and a barrack room future will be fastened upon us, as it has been upon the German people. So time is of the essence. A short war is our best chance to avoid a Hitler on the Potomac." —Samuel B.. Pettengill.

Freedom of Speech in War Times

12-11-41 SEN TOBEY: " . . . I happen to be a member of this body and, like the President of the U.S.A., I took an oath of office to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the U. S.A.,I refer to MR. FRANCIS BIDDLE, the present Atty. Genl. of the U.S.A., who supports me in my contention. Mr. Biddle, speaking at the AMN. BAR. ASSN. convention the other day, made this statement, in which I concur: "It is particularly important at this time, when we are on the very edge of war, that we ENCOURAGE FORUMS WHICH DEVELOP OPEN AND FULL DISCUSSION OF THE POLICIES OF GOVERNMENT". He further said, and well said: 'EVERY GVERNMENT CAN LIVE ONLY ON CRITICISM'. But there is greater authority, in my judgement, no less a man than the greatest liberal of all time in the history of our Supreme Court, the late, beloved Oliver Wendel Holmes, of blessed memory, who, in an opinion in Frehwork vs. The United States (249 U.S.) said: "WE DO NOT LOSE OUR RIGHT TO CONDEMN EITHER MEASURES OR MEN BECAUSE THE COUNTRY IS AT WAR." . . .

" . . . an article from the N. Y. TIMES (12-11-4) reads: '. . . In his radio speech the President also said: "IF YOU FEEL THAT OUR GOVERNMENT IS NOT DISCLOSING ENOUGH OF THE TRUTH, YOU HAVE EVERY RIGHT TO SAY SO."

The Private Federal Reserve Building Taxfree ?

12-10-41 issue REP. PATMAN: Mr. Speaker, much is being said in the newspapers about the District of Columbia tax authorities levying on the Federal Reserve Bank Building here in Washington for taxes, and ordering the building sold soon to satisfy a tax debt incurred over a period of years. It is claimed by the Federal Reserve officials that it is exempt from taxes, the same as public buildings. THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANKING SYSTEM IS PRIVATELY OWNED. NOT $1. OF THE STOCK IS OWNED BY THE GOVERNMENT OR BY THE PEOPLE; IT IS OWNED BY PRIVATE BANKING CORPORATIONS. IT IS A CORPORATION OWNED BY CORPORATIONS. Many people believe that the Federal Reserve Banking System is owned by the Government because it is named Federal, but, of course this is not true . . .

They Wouldn't Shoot Lincoln Today

Dear Friend:

Since when are you getting so old fashioned? You write in the "Broom" No. 21. "What would happen if Lincoln were here today?" "They'd shoot him", was my prompt rejoinder.

You know well that that is against their policy today. It would bring down public opinion on them (which they are so skillful to shape) and as a result they would get it in the neck.

Have we not discovered a good many subtle poisons to dispatch a fellow that were known at the time of Nero or Caesar, thanks to laboratories filled with mice and monkeys and hospitals for the final supreme test and two legged guinea pigs as the victims.

Was the Sultan of Egypt shot or Borah from Idaho, or Adams the Senator from Colorado, just to mention a few? Yet it will avail them nothing, for there are ten to take the place of every one that is assassinated, and in the long run the truth shall prevail regardless of the efforts made to suppress it.

May you every day become a better tool to lead this truth to VICTORY.

Peace be onto you

Is de Aryan 'Subversive'?

TESTIMONY BEFORE "TENNEY COMMITTEE" ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES

On Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, C. Leon de Aryan was sworn in by Jack B. Tenney, chairman of the ASSEMBLY FACT-FINDING COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES IN CALIFORNIA, and then was turned over to R. E. Combs, committee investigator, for questioning. After giving his name, address and occupation, the editor of The BROOM was quizzed about his ancestry etc. Every question relating to his personal history had been prevoiusly answered in the various issues of THE BROOM over a period of 11 years, so that readers of this paper are quite familiar with the background and the personal history of its editor. For the daily press these "revelations", of course, were news, because the daily press has always lagged years behind the BROOM in giving correct information to its readers. The daily press reporter took this opportunity of "smearing" our editor by arranging his alleged quotations from the testimony in such a way as to distort the picture and present an un-American "sympathizer" of the "Bund" and of other people "now under investigation" by Tenney's committee. The daily press utterly failed to report that at the close of the hour-long "investigation" the committee unanimously expressed its views that our editor was neither anti-Semitic in the general term of persecuting Jews for being Jews, nor un-American in the sense of disloyalty to the U.S.A.—Why has the daily press REFUSED TO CORRECT its report by even belatedly adding this "testimony" of the committee to the implied allegations of un-Americanism on the part of our editor?! Evidently we were to be tried and found guilty by the daily press because we still refuse to accept the theory that the U. S. has any business making war, except in defense of its own people and territory.

Questions and Answers

In the following the questioner is R. E. Combs, the answers given by C. Leon de Aryan. Since we did not receive a correct and verbatim transcript we are reconstructing questions and answers as close as we may, from notes and memory.

Who determines the policy of your paper? — I do.

Have you written anything in your paper against Communism? — Yes.

When did you start writing that type of editorials? — Probably from the first issue.

Is that still your policy? — Yes.

You do not believe in Marxism? — No. It is destructice of individual initiative.

Have you made a study of Communism? — I did not go into it in a systematic way.

Have you been persecuted by Communists? — Yes.

When did they start going after you? — 6 or 7 years ago. I was invited to attend a Communist meeting up stairs at 8th street. In those days I used to be a single-taxer. The S. T. were meeting in the same building, downstairs. The Communists invited me to attend their meeting, which I did. During the meeting they circulated a petition for making the Communists a legal party in California and I refused to sign that petition. Since that time they have been giving me trouble.

In what way did they go after you? — A man started calling me on the phone, sometimes at night, sometimes in the day time. He used to insult me, or my family, whoever answered the phone. Later he hung up if any member of the family answered, except myself. He invited me to "Go hang yourself" — later changed to "You dirty Nazi spy" and other similar epithets.

How do you know he is a Communist? — By the peculiar guttural sound of his voice. There is a difference between a pure Anglo-Saxon, or American voice and that of a Communist agitator. You will have noticed even here that Bert Leech, who testified before me, said he was born in Kansas. But did you not notice that his accent carries the same guttural sound as all active, alien Communist agitators have. I am watching these small peculiarities. They disclose who the aggressive Communists are, as a rule.

(The audience, consisting of about 20 Communists and 6 Americans, broke out laughing, which incident was described in the daily press as "Laughter greeting de Aryan's definition of how to identify a Communist almost disrupted the meeting." This misrepresentation proves bias on the part of the reporter, Henry Love, for the San Diego Union, in an attempt to create sentiment against the man who called his Newspaper Guild a tool of Communism. How can one expect truthful accounts, unbiased accounts from Newspaper Guild reporters in a matter where their own tie-up with Communists is involved.)

There follows more personal and ancestral history.

Worked in Mesopatamia

You, then, went to Egypt? — Yes and then to Mesopotamia.

You worked as a civil engineer under Sir William Wilcox? — Yes.

You refused to continue with your work becase you disagreed with Sir William sending maps to England? — Yes. Wilcox was a British subject in Turkish government employ. I was in the same employ and did not consider it fair and ethical to acccept pay from the Turkish government while betraying it to England when copies of every map we made were sent to Simla, in India.

This was followed by more personal history and a roster of persons connected with the Civil Liberties Union and the Dorsey Committee, most of whom were unknown to editor.

Did you know A. O. Jones? — Yes.

How long? — About a year. He came down here one day to a Men's Republican League meeting in the U. S. Grant Hotel. He happened to sit next to me at the table and introduced himself. That was shortly after President Roosevelt called Col.. Lindbergh a Copperhead. Jones started the "Copperheads" club.

Did you know that Mr. Jones was a member of various subversive committees and the American Civil Liberties Union? — No. But I don't consider the A. C. L. U. subversive. There are many good Americans belonging to it for the sake of protecting civil liberties.

Did you know Jones wrote for the Weckruf? — No.

What does Weckruf mean? — A call to wake you up.

That's right. Mr. Jones also contributes to your paper? — He sent me a number of articles. Some of them I printed, others I rejected. He had been sending out literature and emblems "I am a Copperhead" and I asked for such literature. I did not know of the various other connections of his which you mentioned.

Do you know Robert Noble? — Yes, I have seen him twice.

How long have you been acquainted with him? — About 3 weeks .

You met him about 3 weeks ago? — Yes, in Los Angeles.

Have you ever attended any meetings there? — 3 weeks ago, that was the first time.

Did you ever speak there? — About 3 weeks ago.

Then the names of some other people were presented with most of whom the editor had no acquaintance whatever, with others a cursory acquaintance at public meetings which he covered as reporter for THE BROOM.

The editor explained that he had an appointment to meet a Quaker in Pasadena, the head of the Friends Service Committee, to present a plan by which Conscientious Objectors may be made useful as 24 hour Air Raid Wardens instead of wasting their time digging ditches and cutting brush, when they could render a valuable service at present in a line of work they cannot object to doing; saving human lives and property. While in Los Angeles he attended the Noble meeting and when he arrived at 9 o'clock, he found Noble reading from an editorial in THE BROOM, on "Roosevelt's Ghastly Budget" message to Congress where the President informed Congress on how many billions it would take to continue the war but forgot to state how many caskets he would need in the process for the young men, too, who have to pay with their lives for the President's war budget. .The editor was asked to address the meeting, which he did, stating his religious-philosphical views on the matter to the effect that inspite of the world being at war, God still rules supreme as well as the TEN COMMANDMENTS and whoever violates them will be made to answer to history as well as to the Highest Judge of human lives and destiny.

Anti-Semitism

Have you expressed through the columns of the BROOM antipathy against the Jewish people? — Yes, I did. I protested against the large number of Jews occupying important federal positions. There are much too many of them for a representative form of government, beginning with Mr. Morgenthau and Felix Frankfurter.

A Challenge to the City Council

Should Taxpayers Finance Undertakers ?

There is something for our City Fathers and for City Manager Walter Cooper to look into. It would not even hurt if Jake Weinberger took a peek at it as city attorney.

Suppose they looked up the names of people who are being buried in Mount Hope cemetery at city taxpapyers' expense and followed up the scrutiny for the past 2 or 3 years to find out what undertaker handled the case and how much the undertaker was paid by the family of the deceased. Suppose our public officials got up such a list and discovered who gets the profit as an undertaker for burying allegedly poor people in Mount Hope cemetery, while being paid for the undertaking services. It stands to reason that the undertaker has a better chance of collecting if the city supplies the burial lot at taxpayers' expense than if the family had to pay for both, undertaker and burial lot.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS LAND FOR BURIALS

And now that the Federal Government needs a number of acres for cemetery purposes during this war why could not the city sell some of its Mount Hope acres which are laying idle, undeveloped, instead of having a new cemetery started around La Jolla?

Good WORD — Good DEED

Federation of Nations

(From British Mazdaznan Magazine)

After the reading of Washington's Wonderful Vision, the Rev. Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish continued:—

From this vision we may learn that all great minds see and are called upon to foresee. To some it comes in dreams, to others in visions, others get it through diplomatic knowledge and understanding.

While George Washington was engaged in a work of liberation he was at the same time to foresee the calamities, the calamities that are inevitable, just as the present calamity which we are passing through is a necessity.

A Transparent Race cannot rise, the Transparent Race cannot come, a new race cannot separate itself from the former, unless that former race has reached its height. Like all preceding races it must find its place now upon this earth.

For this reason it is the duty of all the Associates and Saints of God to see to it that the White Race gains its station here upon this earth, and develops the gifts, talents, attributes and endowments vested in it.

George Washington lived in comfort and in ease. What could it matter to him whether the rest of the people were mistreated, abused and imposed upon? What could it matter to him whether one foreign element or another ruled the others? With him it was not a question of livelihood. He was comfortably situated; nevertheless, he felt that for his own progress, for his own sake, it was necessary to bring about freedom, liberation.

And so it is with us. Sifting it right down to the present, we, too, have our visions. We see the future before us; we recognize designs. We agree that there is a standard of perfection to be gained, which to experience necessitates the exercise of our talents and with it we must realize that something is to be done, something has to be accomplished. Thus, we have realized that the Coming Race, the Transparent Race, is dependent upon the success of the White Race, which Race is not complete. The White Race, to be a race complete in itself must be united for those constituting that race must have the mentality characteristic of that race, settled and affirmed. We know the mentality of the Mongolian Race is settled; that mind cannot be changed. The mind of the Hindu is fixed, it is set, it yields neither the one way nor the other. The same holds true of all the other races. The only mind that is unsettled—is the mind of the White Race. No matter of what nationality the White Man may be, his mind is unsettled.

The White Race has to be emancipated, and Emancipation comes through Federation. All nationalities have to come together; they have to become one family, and as soon as that has been accomplished then the New Race can evolve, and those who are to constitute the New Race will be separated from the preceding race. The separatists will at once show strong lines of demarcation.

We can never mistake a Mongolian, no matter how he may be clothed, how he may be garbed; his appearance will betray him. A Hindu is always a Hindu. Though he live in London for fifty years, he will always be a Hindu. And that is how it will have to be with the White Man. And when the Transparent Man comes forth, the differences will be just as marked from the White man as the White is from the Yellow Race, the Yellow from the Dusk Race, the Dusk from the Olive-Green, the Olive-Green from the Brown Race, the Brown from the Black Race. The appearance will single out the Transparent Race, will separate it from the White Race, as the latter is distinguished from all other races. Just as we feel we have nothing in common with the Mongolian, and there is nothing in common with the Dusk, we feel toward those who are not of our royal relation. We can deal and associate, we can work hand in hand with them, live among them, and yet have nothing in common. There is always that strange, almost mysterious demarcation which seems to say: "Thus far, and no further shalt thou go." The feeling is there, though the appearance may not be strongly marked as yet. In order to progress to separate ourselves from the White Race, bring about a completion, we must add our might and set in motion every available power to establish the White Race in its mission as intended by Infinite Designs.

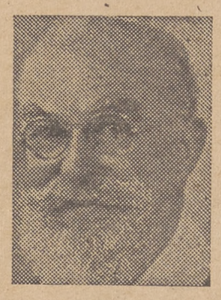
KEEP YOUR TONSILS !

LOS ANGELES,— The Tonsils are the "policemen" of the throat. If they have too much work to do they become tired and "sore", the same as any other "policeman" would.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

U would not kill a policeman because he is overworked. Why destroy the tonsils because they have too much work to do?

The eating of sugar in the form of refined, granulated or powdered sugar; and the eating of candies and other sweets, are the most common causes for tonsil troubles, especially in children. Next come the eating of de-natured starches in the form of white bread and refined "breakfast foods"; the drinking of quantities of milk; and the use of aluminum in cooking.

It is no wonder that the tonsils are sick and enlarged and inflamed! Give the tonsils a chance to recuperate. Don't let any mis-informed or money-grabbing doctor cut them out. Nature would not have given the body tonsils to protect the throat, were they not necessary.

DON'T BLAME THE TONSILS FOR TRYING TO PROTECT U.

As the use of aluminum in the kitchen has increased, so have congested and inflamed tonsils increased.

Certain articles of food are so changed by being cooked in aluminum, a poisonous product is the result. No food cooked in aluminum is safe; but some foods, such as tomatoes for example, seem to take up the poison more. This poison from the aluminum mixed in the food seems to set up an intense action in the tonsils and other glands about the throat, and catar of these glands is a result.

Find the cause for the over-work thrown upon the tonsils and remove that—don't remove the hard-working tonsils.

Christian Rules Are Effective

(Friday night, 9:45, KGB, Feb. 27)

I am happy to report to you that the simple rule enunciated by the Master of Nazareth works as truly today as it worked in the days when He was walking the earth.

I had not one single penny of capital to invest when I started my paper over 11 years ago. All the money was furnished by my subscribers and advertisers who wanted this independent paper to bring them information they could not get otherwise. I still have not one single penny and my faith is as firm today as it was the day I first published my paper. In addition I have also been on the air regularly for three years. From this you can see that once we dare love the truth and speak it and live up to it to the best of our ability, ALL THESE OTHER THINGS are taken care of by the people who still want a free and fearless press to bring out facts and information not contained in the dailies. And even while we have many commercially sponsored radio commentators on the air, still, my program is drawing quite an audience because it leads your mind and your spirit to consider eternal verities in the midst of a changing world so that you be not misled by mortal mind and ambitions when considering your own future and that of your children. I wish to thank you for your support in the past and may your faith in the future be as steadfast as my own.

Guns - Children - 1941

Here are a few 1941 reports of cases where children 15 years of age or younger have killed playmates, relatives or neighbors.

A child nine years old, using a rifle carelessly left loaded and within reach, killed a playmate six years old.

A child of nine shot to death a playmate because he wouldn't go home.

A girl ten years old shot her aunt dead, having found the weapon on the kitchen table.

There were intentional murders of fathers whose children were angry.

A boy of six committed suicide.

Gangs of boys as young as seven years old carried guns and robbed stores. In one case police found hundreds of rounds of ammunition with eight weapons in addition to those the gang had when arrested.

There were duels in play and duels in earnest.

There were battles with real weapons.

The blame rests upon the persons who leave guns within reach of children. Curious, playful and boastful children, as well as angry ones, find guns in homes. One gun is too many.

Smokeless Breathing Air

I'm just a boy, not very high,
But I would know the reason why
A dog or cat of pedigree
Should have advantage over me.

I saw a sign not long ago,
"Don't smoke in here, for don't you see
These dogs and cats of pedigree
Are injured by the poisoned stuff
You get in cigarettes and snuff,
Cigars and pipes and all of that,
So with your poison, now please 'scat'!"

For if it hurts a dog, you see,
I'd like to know what about me?
They tell me it will kill a cat,
And I'm more precious far than that.

Now, I don't like the nasty smell;
When smoke gets thick I don't feel well;
If you must smoke, please be fair
And give US smokeless breathing air.

THE TIE THAT BINDS

Love is the only tie,
Law cannot bind a heart.
Where love has disappeared,
The hearts must fall apart.

The letters of the law
Are dead, as dead as stone
And where love's spark has flown,
Bone clings no more to bone.

But where love is alive
New worlds rise from the ground — —
Thus it will always be
While life to love is bound.

Otto Schkoelziger.

EIGHTY - EIGHT

Her wrinkled face is lovely with its vim,
Her snowy hair is always very neat.
She sits with queenly grace to sew or mend,
Upon a shaky broken wooden seat.

How fine to be so well at eighty-eight!
Her views are entertaining, not too mild.
And yet she lives alone in that rude shack,
As optimistic as a new-born child!

NO CO-OP

"So your son had to leave college on account of poor eyesight?"

"Yes, he mistook the dean of women for a co-ed."

The Brotherhood of Man

When every bloody man-of-war is taken out and sunk,
And all of hell's artillery is hammered into junk,
And the plunderbund is swatted stiff and only those who toil
Shall have and eat and use the things from mill and soil;
When those who do the work that's done shall own the tools & jobs;
And will not feed the drones on corn and they themselves eat cobs;
When Labor blows its trumpet blast in Hallelujah tones;
And nothing but a garbage heap is left of kings and thrones;
When every one shall sit beneath his fig tree and his vine,
And the tides of life shall mingle in the human and divine,
And a little child shall lead, as the old, old story ran:
I will meet you there, my friend, in the Brotherhood of Man.

Vitamin Pills Can't Take Place of Food, Medical Body Warns

NEW YORK,— Indiscriminate administration of vitamins to industrial employes is disapproved by the council on foods and nutrition and the council on industrial health of the American Medical association.

A report in the current issue of the Journal of the association says:

"It is irrational, from the therapeutic point of view, and therefore has no place in a program aimed at securing industrial health. It is unwise nutritionally, because special vitamin preparations cannot take the place of valuable natural foods in achieving the completely satisfactory nutritive state."

democracy

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

NEW YORK.—There is a consistency in this program of friendlines for Sovietism by our New Deal administration, and by the Labor-Union English Government; and among the three. And while that consistency is based on an utterly unsound theory of Karl Marx, of class war between labor and capital, its aim is 'righteous'.

Ingersoll

Humanity is entitled to give thanks that in these nations there is a majority determination to right human wrongs. Even though (a) the nature of the wrong is not understood and agreed to, and therefore (b) the remedy is not the right one—even possibly worse than the disease.

The Communist remedy while about half right, since it would communize social values making up half the human estate, is so utterly wrong in communizing the other half, of private property, industry, and wealth, as to warrant the charge that the 'remedy is worse than the disease'.

But if our way of life can't explain and defend itself, it must expect to yield to such weakness as Roosevelt's, Churchill's and Cripps'; and regiment with Stalin.

If our statesmen mentioned were only enlightened—if Churchill has held to his enlightenment of 25 years ago, and can now inject his splendid philosophy, and in his superb manner, into this world emergency—if he could show his three collaborators the actual and obvious need of all nations, a miracle would evolve from this friendlines with Communism.

Communism aims at setting up a system for the proletariat which has the merit of interceding for the under-dog. But this does not justify the use of force instead of justice, or of robbing the rich in order to pay off the poor.

The rich are as much entitled to protection as the poor. Churchill said it: It is the system which must be changed. And it is to be done by taxing—100%—the social land values which are now being taken monopolistically.

Communism is raising the question. Our leaders are entertaining the question. Now will they produce the right answer, as Churchill did in the Lloyd George campaign?

Whose Propaganda? Navy vs. Army

WASHINGTON,—Feb. 26— Secy. Stimson today said unidentified airplanes, possibly as many as 15, which may have been operated by enemy agents, were over Los Angeles early yesterday and were fired on by army anti-aircraft guns.

Stimson said the raid, described late yesterday by Secy. of the Navy Knox as a "false alarm", occured between 3:12 and 4:15 a. m. Pacific war time. Anti-aircraft guns of the 37th coast artillery brigade fired 1430 rounds of ammunition at the planes, which Stimson told a press conference were officially reported as flying at speeds ranging from "very slow" to 200 miles an hour, and at heights of 9000 to 18,000 feet.

TRUTH Conspicous by Its Absence

(Friday night, 9:45, KGB, Feb. 27)

As you know I was called before the Jack Tenney committee on un-American activities to testify as to my knowledge of communistic and totalitarian or Fascist activities. From the account given in the daily papers one would get the impression that I was a Bund sympathizer because I attended Bund meetings in San Diego and Los Angeles. But the daily papers failed to point out the fact that their reporters attended the same Bund meetings. What does such attendance make them if it makes me a Bund sympathizer?

The report in the daily papers also gives one the impression that I must be of necessity in accord with everything printed in my paper and because contributors who wrote things I published are now being investigated for un-American activities, I am to be suspected of similar tendencies. In that case I wish to call your attention that I never published a full speech, or even part of a speech, made by Hitler to the Reichstag in Berlin. But you have read verbatim, time and again in the daily papers, what Hitler said in Berlin. Evidently, then, the daily papers approve of Hitler's ideas and his speeches if that is the rule that the editor must be held responsible for everything he prints. You can see the absurdity of such attitude, but that is exactly the impression which was conveyed by the daily papers and their report of my alleged testimony before the Tenney committee. And to make matters even worse, the report in the daily papers completely ommitted the remarks by the members of the investigating committee who said that from the facts presented at the inquiry there was no cause for considerating me to be either anti-Semitic or un-American. Now why do the daily papers omit such an important statement but print an alleged testimony in such a way as to give the impression that I am a Bund sympathizer or a follower of Noble who approves of Hitler and Japan's war practices, because I attended public meetings in order to find out what is going on. How else can I find out? And whenever at a public meeting I am asked to say a few words, I tell them what I think is most needed for the improvement of American life and conditions regardless of what other speakers before me or after me might say from the same platform. First the daily papers holler about free speech and free press for themselves but they fail to report what the Tenney committee members said about me at the end of their investigation.

OPEN FORUM

The Jack B. Tenney Committee

Editor, THE BROOM:

A little episode in the great tragic comedy of American life was enacted a week ago in the city council chamber when the "Tenney" committee came to town. This committe, representing the so-called lower house of the California legislature, is officially designated, Assembly Interim Committee on un-American Activities. It is sometimes dubbed "the little Dies committee".

"Un-American" was intended to refer, not to the committee, but to matters and activities investigated. "Interim" refers to the time set for its work, being the interim or interval from the time it was created in the 1941 regular session to the time it will report back to the Assembly in the 1943 sessions. Thus "interim" means between the sessions.

The report will be in writing and presumably will contain recommendations for legislation.

This brings us to the purpose of legislative investigating committees. It has long been a recognized principle of government that a legislative body has the right to make legislative investigations. It does so through the agency of a committee or committees. At the present time the legislature has thirteen interim committees. The subjects of inquiry may be as varied as the subjects of legislation—highway development, water development, fish and game, horse racing, phases of agriculture, the oil industry, or "un-American activities".

"Smear" Campaign

Such a committee has at least one undisputably legitimate purpose: to discover facts that will suggest needed legislation. Ordinarily that is the only purpose a committee can have. But some members believe in a second purpose: to expose, through the uncovering of facts, some wrong condition; and, by the resulting publicity, to arouse or influence public opinion. This second purpose should always be incidental and subordinate to the first purpose—that of collecting information upon which to base legislation. To recognize it as anything but incidental, is always questionable. Obviously, what one man thinks is reprehensible, another may consider innocent or commendable. If the purpose of a committee is to expose something or somebody, the committee's work is apt to degenerate into a "smear campaign", carried on for an unworthy motive. At best, an investigating committee may perform a useful service; at worst, it may be used to discredit a governor, to defeat some candidate or group of candidates, to act as a lobby, or to build up some member's political capital, or merely to give the opportunity of a junketing trip.

I believe in interim committees; but created only for useful purposes, when other means of inquiry are inadequate; and only when kept on a high plane of honest efficiency.

The public has a right to be suspicious of such committees, knowing that publicity is part of a politician's capital. He should earn such capital with good works, not by courting sensationalism.

Publicity is to a politician what manure is to a plant—in each case something on which the recipient is supposed to thrive. And sometimes I think the similarity is even closer.

No person would be apt to resent being publicized as a witness appearing before an interim committee on water problems, It is easy to see why most witnesses resent being called before a "Committee on un-American Activities".

Thus far the committee having held hearings in San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, has mostly confined itself to interviewing acknowledged or alleged Communists and former Bund members, with most of the emphasis on Communism. Of course the Communists resent being called un-American, but they feel doubly insulted to be associated with Bundsmen. What the Bundsmen thought of the Communists, was not stated at the hearing in San Diego.

When the committee members hove in sight and sat down at the table in the council chambers, I thought of the old rhyme by L. E. Claypool, printed about nine years ago in his "Sunnyside" column in the SAN DIEGO SUN of late lamented memory:

"Hurry up, children, scram under the beds;
The demon, Van Deman, is after the Reds."

It would be easy for me to treat both the committee and many of the witnesses with ridicule, but I don't want to be too unkind. I knew many of the witnesses and for several years I have rubbed elbows in Sacramento with the committee members. Most of these people, on both sides of the table, are earnest Americans who believe ardently in democracy, or at least think they do; who believe in the undefinable but well meant term, "Americanism", and who desire the best for their country. I would not even be sure but that the former Bundsmen were inpired by a desire to help better international relations. Of course I do not believe that to be true of the higher Bund leaders in America.

The "tragic comedy" referred to in the busines of such a committee consists in the fact that they all take themselves so seriously, and with such mutual antipathy, in face of the great and unsolved problems of America, for the solution of which nobody is accomplishing much.

(Signed) PAUL RICHIE.

What Do The Scriptures Really Say?

Dr. L. Sabin Kenworthy, having spent thirty years in the STUDY of Hebrew is bringing out a THOUGHT TRANSLATION of The Hebrew Spiritual Church. Volumn I, is now mimeographed and for sale. This THOUGHT translation restores the Hebrew Proper nouns, and spells them as the Hebrew spells them, as Dr. Philip Schaff thought it ought to be, thereby bringing to the reader much of the Hebrew esotericism, deleted in the Jewish traditional versions. These Jesus deprecated in 30 A. D.

Volumn I has Bere-shis with copious notes complete, and with restoration of the Order, and Number of the Hebrew Books, which is twenty-four, which was to show that the Hebrew Spiritual Church was founded on the Twelve Signs, and their spiritual counterparts, which number also twelve. This Memorial was destroyed in the busting up of the number and boosting it to thirty-seven or more in some versions. Excerpts of the first chapter of each of these Books with an Introduction and Notes.

The Book BERES HIS is a History of the organization of the Hebrew Spiritualist Church and gives its teachings of Reading, Healing, and Seeing. The ancient Trinity, which brings comfort, happiness, liberty and prosperity to man. In the 40th Chapter and 14th verse it correctly states the GOLDEN RULE thru that eminent Medium Yo-sef in the Egyptian jail, a place in U. S. used for a similar purpose. It is this "WHEN THINGS GO WELL WITH YOU, THINK ON ME AS ON YOURSELF."

In the celebrated MEDIUM, called the "SON OF MAN" was found much fault and His words in this instance was changed from "THOUGHTS" to "Things".

So "The Golden Rule" of the Churches is followed by the inebriate, Pat, Tom and Heine, as they put their foot on the brass rail and tip, or "do as they would be done by".

Price $5.00 post paid, L. Sabin Kenworthy, 1011 South Harvard Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif.

YOHO - SHUAG

The Carpenter of Galilee in 30 A. D. spoke, and from 15 B. C. to 33 A. D. spoke his mother's tongue, the Aramaic. In this Dialect He taught His students, who wrote what He said in Aramaic. Never did He nor His pupils speak or write in Greek or Latin. These Languages were of the Occident, they spoke a language of the Orient, and read their Hebrew Scriptures in their Circles—homes—as well as in the Temple. Lewi wrote, and it was published in Edessa, the "WORDS OF YOHO-WAH". This was the pattern for all the other Gospels, in which language all were written, later translated into Greek in an inadequate fashion. As the following show.

Mat. 2,1. The Peshitta reads: "Yoho-shuag was born in Bes-le-cem, Yuhu-dah during the reign of King Heron, when the RECEPTIVE men from the East came to Huru-shu-lem".

Mar-qus 10, 32. The Aramaic reads: "They were on their way up to Yuru-sha-lem and Yoho-shuag floated before them, and they were amazed and as they followed Him they worshipped Him".

Mar-qus 2: 15, 34. "And hollowered: 'My God! My God! This is My destiny!' "There he is, My father! My father for this was I kept." This makes Yoho-shuag a hero, and not a craven fellow as the Church versions do, which also delete the last part of the speech. A scene on the Cross.

Lu. 23, 42. "The lesser criminal said to Yoho-shuag: 'My Master, when you come into your communication, don't forget me'. (43) Yoho-shuag replied: "I'll do it. Certainly I tell you this day you shall be with me in the beautiful garden." And he was there that night and the next two days and Mary saw him in the tomb.

Yo-can-nan (John) 4, 11. "The woman argued with Him; 'My Yoho-wah, you have no leathern bucket nor a deep well. How come eternal waters with you?' " This conversation was carried on in Aramaic.

These passages alone are worth your five dollars. Besides the Vol. III contains nine pages on the proof of Matthew wrote in Aramaic. This volumn gives the picture that the Church supposes the Last Supper to represent, but a correct cut shows very different for it shows the men with shoes off, hats on and reclining at meal the usual custom in the East. But the Church picture is a Western picture that never took place. So they have changed the customs as well as the thought of the Eastern Books.
